ANNUAL ORGANIZATION BUDGET AND PRIMARY FUNDING SOURCES *

Our primary income is from donations and grants. We are a non-profit, so our budget has to zero out annually. In 2025, we received $611,067 in cash totally - $216,956 for Moms & Tots and $394,110 for the pantry. Our client services help come out of the pantry bucket. We also get money from our two resale stores that totaled $191,243 from taxable sales, ebay sales and jewelry sales. Our net operating Revenue after all expenses is $117,933.50. I will have all paperwork at meeting if anyone would like to look it over.

WHAT COMMUNITY NEED WOULD OUR DONATION HELP MEET? *

It would help pay for necessary updates like new windows at the furniture store so then we could keep our donations to help the needy in our area.

PROVIDE A DESCRIPTION OF HOW OUR GIFT WOULD BE UTILIZED. INCLUDE A SPECIFIC DOLLAR ESTIMATE AND TIMING OF IMPLEMENTATION. *

We recently purchased the building our furniture store is located in at 6159 Center St in Ellsworth. It was going for sale, and we were in jeopardy of losing our space, so we decided to purchase the building on land contract with the owner. It is in bad need of some updating on exterior and interior. We are fixing leaks in roof, putting in new double pane windows, putting new shaker tiles on front, new lighting and new sign and painting. Our estimates are around for everything (if we do a new floor) are $60,000. Exterior which we are doing first is around $40,000. It would be a blessing to take care of this building but be able to continue to use our funds for the less fortunate in our community.
