Members of 100 Women Who Care - Elk Rapids Area voted to award their May collective gift to Right Tree, an Elk Rapids nonprofit dedicated to empowering young women by helping them discover their worth, gifts, voice, and future. Right Tree strives to foster personal growth through after-school programming, outdoor adventures, and community service projects.

Right Tree participant Addison Coats shared that Right Tree’s after-school “campfire time has helped me work through problems, and I have gotten to know, and understand, many new friends.” Viv Darnell added that “serving the community is fun, especially serving “Soup for Seniors” and making dog treats for the animal shelter.”

Craig Mosher, Right Tree founder and Board Member, described the 100 Women Who Care - Elk Rapids Area gift as “transformational,” allowing them to pursue their future goals, including expanded programming and capital replacements that exceed their annual budget.
