

100 Women Who Care – Elk Rapids Area Supports Do a Little Good

100 Women Who Care – Elk Rapids Area recently presented Do a Little Good (DaLG) with a donation totaling $25,200. Glori Cowell, DaLG founder and board member, remarked “This amazing gift from 100WWC – Elk Rapids Area helps guarantee that our well-established projects such as childcare scholarships, veterans’ needs and school lunch debt relief will be fully funded for the next year.”

Members of 100 Women Who Care – Elk Rapids Area present check to Do a Little Good board members. Courtesy photo

A portion of the gift will also be used to help launch DaLG’s newest project, a 24/7 food pantry that will provide community residents free supplemental food whenever they need it. For updates on this project, follow Do a Little Good (@doalittlegoodnmi) on Facebook and/or Instagram, and the newly formed Elk Rapids Food Coalition on Facebook (@elkrapidsfoodcoalition).

100 Women Who Care – Elk Rapids Area is an inclusive group of women committed to supporting nonprofits serving Antrim County residents through collective giving. To learn more, visit <https://www.100womenelkrapids.org/>.